THE WRECK.

BY MRS. ANNIE H. EDWARDS.

'Tis night, the sun's declining ray
Hath kissed farewell the brow of Day,
And clinging to the parent breast
Sinks slowly to his dreamless rest.
Cool is the evening breeze, and calm,
Bathing the earth in fragrant balm,
The water still, so clear the sky,
That every gl' wing light on high,
Seems in the crystal sea to lave,
Disporting 'mid its glassy wave,
And foremost in the glittering train,
The Queen of Night asserts her reign,
Over the still deep her mantle throws,
Gilds the blue wave, that trembling glows,
And droops a clear and dazzling veil
Over yon vessels snowy sail.

'Tis the mid-watch, and moonbeams bright,
Beneath a cloud have hid their light,
The glory from the night hath gone,
But still the ship bears bravely on.
Lull'd by the murmurs of the deep,
Serene each form is still—in sleep,
And the deep silence is unbroken,
Save when the one "malls well" is spoken,
Above them, now a mournful strain,
Arises, dies, then comes again,
And oft it breathes a wailing tone,
To mortal minstrelsy unknown,
Hail, sea those gleams of hazy light,
Thou beams of noonday sun more bright,
Broader grows the light, and higher,
The ship of God! the ship's on fire.

O, what a fearful scene is here,
Quivers each awakened heart with fear,
They hear the cannon slowly boom,
And shuddering read their awful doom,
Some weep, some shriek, some humbly pray
Oh, God, thy awful vengeance stay!
Yet not our wills, but thine be done,
Our day has passed, our race is run.
And some blaspheme th' Almighty pow'r,
And wildly curse their natal hour,
Some fiercely laugh to see the wreck,
And madly face the burning deck,
Shouting aloud, in joyous glee
Like demons, at their deity,
While still in fearful columns flash
The flames, and loud the ruins crash.

One show'r of earth stars upward driven,
O'er decks and masts ascends to Heaven,
The noble ship, a thing of life,
Succumbs in the unequal strife,
Then shuddering bends, for all is o'er,
And quivers, sinks, to rise no more.

The morning sun with waken'd beam,
Tinges the sky with rosy gleam,
Giving the sea a deeper hue,
Tinting the clouds with rainbow hues,
But not a ripple breaks the waves,
That roll above the seamen's graves.
Harmony Hill, Bourbon county, Ky.

Sharpe, be, and they are hereby made a body politic and corporate in law, under the style and firm of the Cynthiana Cemetery Company, and by that name shall be able and capable in law, to have and to use a common seal, to sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded and to do all such other things as an incident to a corporation. The said company shall have power to purchase any quantity of land in the county of Harrison not exceeding one hundred acres, and receive a conveyance of the same, with such covenants of warranty as they may think proper. The land and appurtenances, when conveyed to said corporation shall be held solely and exclusively for a cemetery and ornamented grounds connected therewith, and shall never be alienated, sold or used by said corporation for any other purpose than burial lots, as herein after prescribed. But the said corporation may permit their superintendent or other officers to use that portion of their grounds and buildings not sold for burial lots for horticultural purposes, provided the same is used in a manner not inconsistent with the reverence and respect due the cemetery of the dead. The said grounds, fixtures, shrubbery and everything growing therein shall always be exempted from State revenue but shall not after the ground has been fully paid for, be subject to be levied on or sold by judgment, execution or decree, for any other debt, or cause whatever. No road or passway shall be opened through said grounds, unless by consent of the company. The said company may receive and take by devise or bequest, any legacies that may be devised to them to be appropriated solely and exclusively to the ornament and improvement of said cemetery grounds, and may vest in S— or loan out any spare funds that from time to time they may have, but they shall never exercise or attempt to exercise any banking powers.

2. A majority of the above persons or of the survivors of them shall have full power and authority to appoint a board of seven trustees who shall elect one of their own numbers as chairman. Said trustees shall remain in office until their successors are qualified and have power to fill any vacancies that may occur in their body by death, resignation or removal. The term for which the first board of trustees shall serve, shall be designated and limited by those who appoint them as above. After the first board of trustees have been appointed as above, and have qualified, they and their successors in office shall exercise all the corporate powers of the corporation. The seven trustees shall afterwards be elected once in every five years, by a majority of the shareholders who vote. Due notice of the time and place of voting being first given, by publication of four successive weeks, in all news papers published in Cynthiana; and the election shall be conducted by judges appointed by the board then in office. The trustees thus elected shall remain in office five years, and until their successors are qualified. If anything should prevent an election within the proscribed time, a majority of the trustees in office shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, to call a meeting for, and cause an election of their successors, as soon afterwards as convenient. The trustees shall at all times have the power to fill any vacancy that may occur in the board by death, resignation or removal. Death or removal from the county of Harrison or resignation, shall vacate the seat of a trustee. Four trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Each person owning burial lots to the value of twenty-five dollars, shall be regarded as holding a share, and each share shall entitle the holder to one vote in the election of trustees, but no person or body corporate shall be entitled to cast more than ten votes. When a share is vested in several persons, a majority of those present at the time of voting in whom the legal title is to such share shall be entitled to cast such vote. The trustees shall keep a regular record of their proceedings, and of all sales, transfers and disbursements, and shall always preserve an accurate map and survey of the grounds and lots, and have the same recorded in the clerk's office of the Harrison county court. Each trustee shall before he enters on the duty of his office, make oath before some officer competent to administer the same, that he will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of a trustee according to the best of his abilities, and will not be influenced in his conduct as trustee by sectarian or political partialities.

3. As soon as the ground is purchased and the trustees have qualified they shall have power to lay out and ornament the same, and from time to time after, repair and add such buildings and fixtures as may be necessary for the use or ornament of the cemetery grounds, and for this purpose and for the purpose of defraying the incidental expenses of the corporation, shall apply the funds belonging to the same. They shall have power to lay off, sell and convey burial lots either at public or private sale; to make from time to time by-laws and regulations for the control, management and care of the cemetery grounds and graves, and the mode of ornamenting the same, and regulate the mode in which bodies shall be interred, and make such other by-laws and regulations as may be necessary for the purposes of the corporation. They shall have full power to enter upon and remove any ornaments, fixtures or shrubbery that may be placed on or around the graves against the by-laws or regulations of the corporation, they shall have the power to appoint from time to time, such superintendent and other officers as they may think necessary, and take from them such bond as may be required. The proceeds of the sale of lots, and all money that may come to the corporation from any other source, shall be applied first to reimburse those who have made advancements for the original outlay purchase of the establishment, and shall afterwards, in all time to come, be applied to ornament and improve the grounds and defray incidental expenses.

4. When a burial lot is purchased, the trustees shall give a certificate thereof, under the seal of the corporation, which shall vest the purchaser with title. This title may be transferred according to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the by-laws of the corporation, but in no other manner. If not transferred by the grantee, it shall descend or pass by devise as other real estate. Such lots shall never be used for any other purpose than burial lots, and if applied to any other use, the title shall revert to the corporation.

5. If any person shall forcibly and without lawful authority violate any of the graves of the dead, or deface any of the tombstones, monuments, inclosures or injure any of the grounds, shrubbery, fixtures or buildings, or in any manner damage the grounds of the corporation, such person or persons so offending, besides being liable to an indictment for a misdemeanor and punishable according to the discretion of a jury, shall be liable to the corporation in an action of trespass; and the damages when recovered, shall be applied by the corporation to restore as far as possible any injury that has been done.

6. This act to take effect from its passage.

Democratic Meeting in Rowen.

On Monday, the 2d day of February, 1868, the Democrats of Rowen county met in convention at the town of Moorehead for the purpose of appointing delegates to the 22d of February convention, and on motion of Thos. Hargis, H. G. Burns was called to the chair, and R. D. Weaver appointed Secretary; whereupon the following named gentlemen were selected as a committee to draft resolutions, viz. Col. A. Nickell, Thos. J. F. Hughes, John C. Welles, D. F. Epphardt, Esqr., and I. W. Sanford, who retired and returned the following resolutions: Whereas, That in all just governments, the power rests with the consent of the governed; and that inherent right should be exercised at all times with firmness and truth; and feeling our cause to be that of truth, we take this mode of expressing our condemnation of the party in power, and expressing our veneration for our government as it was formed; and call upon our Democratic brethren north, south, east, and west, to unite with us in one grand effort to break the chains of despotism now being forged and riveted on us by bonded aristocracy and fanaticism, to discard past differences and policy, ignore every thing but principle and the victory is sure, and the safety of constitutional liberty is our boon, therefore,
Resolved, That we condemn the action of the Congress of the United States in excluding Judge John D.

Young from his seat in that body; that it is the greatest inroad ever made upon our liberties as a people; that it is an entire destruction of our representative system, carrying along with it the elements which will finally extirpate the liberties of the people of America, so dearly purchased by our forefathers' blood; therefore, we recommend the re-election of the noble patriot, John D. Young, to Congress again and again, or until the people's will is respected, with one to fill a seat in that body from the Ninth Congressional District of Kentucky.

Resolved, That we reassert the principles enunciated by the platform adopted by the Democratic party in Frankfort February 22, 1867.

Resolved, That we commend the course of our distinguished Senator, Joseph M. Alexander, for his patriotism, and the statesmanship he has displayed as a member of that body, and that we earnestly recommend him to be appointed district elector for the Ninth Congressional District; that his eminent qualifications as a "stump-orator" and debater, peculiarly point him out as the man for the place.

Resolved, That our Representative, John W. Kendall, be appointed to cast the vote of this county in the Democratic Convention of the 22d of February, 1868; that we are pleased with, and commend, him for his course in the Legislature.

Resolved, That the Frankfort Yeoman, Cynthiana News, Big Sandy Herald, Flemingsburg Democrat, and Mount Sterling Sentinel are hereby requested to copy the proceedings of this meeting; also, all other Democratic papers in this State.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted, and on motion of J. W. Johnson, the meeting adjourned.

Convention of Distillers.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 7.

At a convention of the distillers of Central Kentucky, held at the Phoenix Hotel, Lexington, February 7, I. N. Lair, of Harrison, was called to the chair, and E. J. Curley, of Fayette, appointed Secretary.

The following resolutions were adopted:

First. That Congress is requested to repeal the law lately passed, preventing the transportation of whisky in bond until the tax upon it was paid, and re-enact the law as it stood prior to the passage of said act, so that the whisky might be transported in bond prior to the payment of the tax.

Second. That if Congress will not repeal the law as it now stands, and re-enact the law as it stood prior to said act, that Congress be requested to reduce the tax upon whisky from two dollars to fifty cents per gallon, and require the payment of said tax prior to the transportation of whisky from the bonded warehouse where stored by the distillers.

Third. That the distillers of the West and Northwest be requested to meet in convention at the Barnett House, in Cincinnati, upon February 26, to perfect such measures as will secure unanimity of action among all those interested and the passage of such acts as will protect their interests.

Fourth. That the newspapers of Kentucky and all other western and northwestern States be respectfully requested to publish the proceedings of this convention, and call general attention to these resolutions, and the convention called to meet in Cincinnati on Feb. 26.

A committee, consisting of Messrs. I. N. Lair, W. H. Thomas, E. Clay, Horace Turner, and E. J. Curley were appointed to communicate the proceedings of this convention to the respective members of Congress from the West, and take such steps as may be necessary to bring this matter properly before Congress at the earliest day possible.

The convention then adjourned to meet at the Phoenix Hotel, in Lexington, Ky., on Friday, Feb. 21.

GIVE US A FRIENDLY WORD.—We would be glad if our exchanges would mention the fact that a festival is to be given to the Alumni of Georgetown college during commencement week, in June next. It is desired to ascertain the address of every graduate of the college, in order to extend an invitation to be present on the occasion, and our contemporaries of the press will confer a favor upon the friends of the institution by giving publicity to the notice. We will take pleasure in reciprocating the favor should opportunity offer.—Geo. Times.

The Methodist congregation, of this city, intend, so we are informed, to build a new house of worship this spring.

Mr. Harry Frisbie, of this city, sold his fast trotting horse, last week to a gentleman from Cincinnati for $150, and cheap at that price.

Mr. C. G. Land is disposing of his dry goods at greatly reduced prices. In fact he will sell his calico and ladies dress patterns to suit purchasers. His goods' furnishing goods he offers very low. dec26

At the sale of stock, crop, &c. on the 20th inst., by W. B. Glave, for Harrison Magee, the following prices were obtained: 1 yoke of oxen $115; 2 year old cattle $35 per head; 3 year olds $52.50 per head; bacon, hog round, 13 1/2 cts per pound; corn per barrel $4.25.

On Tuesday, the 18th inst., the sale of the estate of Joseph Lucas, deceased, was made in this county, near Leesburg, and stock was sold on three months time. Horses brought from $75 to $160; pair of mules $30; yearling calves $42 per head; one sucking calf $31; wheat $2.40 per bushel; corn $4.27 per barrel.

Jno. S. Day, Esq., has just finished a neat and cozy cottage home on Main street, in this city, with all the conveniences necessary for family comforts. He has recently moved into it. We wish that our young people who have recently changed their condition, would examine this cottage and each build one like it.

Cynthiana has a new barber, located under the office of the Rankin House. He is a sprightly colored man, and polite with all. He says, his

"Sizzors are sharp and razors keen. Lathers well and shaves you clean. His shop is warm and water hot. Barbers ready for the spot. Times are hard and barbers poor. Gentlemen, please don't pass my door."

Our friend W. C. Dillard, surgeon dentist, has located at Richmond, Ky. The doctor formerly resided in this city, and while here made many warm friends by his humane and polite behavior, and his gentlemanly bearing. As a dentist he is spoken of as among the first in his profession, as those individuals hereabouts who employed him, find that his work comes up to their expectation in every particular. The good people of Madison will find him worthy their confidence and patronage.

The sheriff of Pendleton county, Mr. Jno. Curry, passed through Cynthiana last Friday en route for Frankfort, accompanied by two persons of color, one from this place named John Curry, to be employed in the penitentiary for seven years; and another negro named Graves, for one year only. The county of Pendleton should be thankful to be relieved of two, even of the stripe of which the sheriff took through Cynthiana.

The city of Cynthiana contains at present 264 buildings, viz:

168 dwelling houses, 35 of which are occupied by colored persons; 37 stores and 12 shops, where different tradesmen carry on their business, also 6 churches, 5 warehouses, 4 blacksmith shops, 4 hotels, 3 carpenter shops, 3 school-houses, 3 livery stables, 3 cooper shops, 2 law offices, 2 Dr. Offices, 2 saloons, 2 wagon shops, 2 steam mills, 1 court-house, 1 bank, 1 engine house, 1 depot, 1 daguerian gallery and 1 printing office.

All kinds of goods and furniture at C. C. Bell's New Store.

SPENCER HOUSE.—The proprietorship of this excellent Cincinnati hotel, has passed into the hands of Capt. H. H. Drown and Merrett Sweeney, Esq. They are gentlemen of high standing, and well qualified for the business in which they have embarked. Capt. Drown has had much experience as commander of one of the most popular steamboats on the Ohio river, and is well and favorably known to the traveling public. The public may be assured that these gentlemen will make the Spencer House a comfortable and welcome place of entertainment for the weary traveler. This hotel, while under the able management of Col. Pratt, received a liberal patronage, and we bespeak for the new proprietors, the same liberal support.

Notice.—A punctual man is rarely a very poor man, and never a man of doubtful credit. His small accounts are frequently settled, and he never meets with difficulty in raising money to pay large demands. Small debts neglected ruin credit; and when a man has lost that, he will find himself at the bottom of a hill he cannot ascend.

Now, gentlemen, please come forward, and settle your small accounts, with yours, C. T. DEDLING. Feb26-6t

A CARD TO INVALIDS.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of nervous weakness, early decay, diseases of the urinary and seminal organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by profane and vicious habits. Great numbers have been cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, free of charge. Training and Boarding STABLE.

Pleasant Street, Cynthiana, Ky.

The undersigned having taken possession of the Livery and Stable formerly occupied by David Veach, on Pleasant street, is prepared to board horses at $2.50 cents per week.

Also will break and handle colts for $1.50 cents per day. Many stock owners believe that when I break a horse for use, that he is prepared for the turf. Not so. A horse must be broke before he is trained. I train horses for speed at $1.50 cents per day, and break them at the same price.

I am a veterinary surgeon of long practice. I understand all horse diseases. I can prick, nick and dock horses, also straighten crooked tails and castrate. Call and see me. J. M. SMITH. Feb27-td

J. J. GOOD, Agent for the Singer New Family Sewing Machine.

This machine is without a superior in the world. It runs as fast and easy and with as little noise as any first class machine in market. It will sew from the stoutest leather to the finest bank bill, and makes every stitch perfect. It sews, folds, binds, cords and tucks; and is adapted to every variety of work. It is strong, compact and durable, with but few joints, and is of simple construction, so that it can be repaired by any one. It is not broken by accident or carelessness. But it is useless to parade a long list of the merits of this machine before the public, as the poorest concerns benefit from it in the greatest abundance. All can try this machine by calling on the agent and it will proclaim its own merits.

All kinds of gunsmithing, jobbing and repairing done to guns and pistols. Ammunition of all kinds kept constantly on hand. Sept5-tf

COAL, COAL.

Buy Campbell's Creek semi-Cannel Coal, from Kanawha River West Va.

By the "analysis" given it in thousands of grates, furnaces and stoves, it has been found that the whole will be consumed, LEAVING NO CINDER.

And only sufficient ashes to cover the fire for keeping through the night.

For grates, stoves and furnaces it fully equals the Youghiogheny, and by most persons is preferred.

It neither runs together nor breaks into small pieces as the other and thereby

It is cheaper in price than Youghiogheny and goes fully as far.
